A stunning and recently refurbished two bedroom property within easy walking distance of High Brooms station. Beautifully decorated and with new carpets throughout, the property benefits from two large double bedrooms both with an ensuite and a contemporary kitchen with plenty of storage. The two reception rooms are light and modern with feature fireplaces. Outside there is a newly landscaped low maintenance garden with a generous patio area for al fresco dining and a further seating area to the back of the garden to catch the afternoon sun. There are two off-street parking spaces. Offered chain free. Early viewing highly recommended.

Tunbridge Wells has an excellent range of educational, leisure and shopping facilities including the Royal Victoria Place shopping centre. There are a selection of highly regarded schools in the area both at primary and secondary levels, many within walking distance. Tunbridge Wells station benefits from regular services to the City and West End in under an hour by fast train.
